Quarterly update

Revenue grew in every region this quarter, led by the north, and the order book is full into spring.

Costs stayed flat as the new depot opened on schedule in September.

Hiring continues for field crews and the customer desk.

Customers rated the service 4.6 of 5, up from 4.4 a year ago, and complaints fell by a fifth.

We plan two more depots next year, subject to the budget.